

Deaf Explorer Finance Assistant Job Pack

About Deaf Explorer: Who We Are

Deaf Explorer are a small team based in Birmingham. We are an arts organisation with a focus on access and inclusion. We develop the creative practice of Deaf artists and produce their work to reach new audiences and participants. Our pioneering work in schools has provided Deaf role models, inspiring Deaf and hard of hearing young people at an early age. We have a strong track record of supporting theatre makers, choreographers & dancers as well as cross artforms, such as Visual Vernacular. In our efforts to remove barriers in the arts for Deaf creatives, we have also developed the work of visual artists, musicians, jewellery makers and digital artists.

We are creative producers and creative enablers, we connect Deaf artists and Deaf communities to the cultural sector. We have shared our expertise with many arts organisations. They include, Women and Theatre, Stan's Café, The Birmingham Hippodrome, Autin Dance Theatre, Culture Central, China Plate, Art Reach, and recently Glass Museum in Stourbridge, where we are supporting Deaf volunteers.

We actively work with the challenges and barriers that artists from all backgrounds encounter, tackling the double or sometimes triple discrimination imposed on intersectional artists. We develop an interest and appetite for culture amongst Deaf people by consulting individuals and providing best practice to communicate and attract deaf audiences. Overall, we are a learning organisation, with a commitment to inclusion. We strive to deliver artistic work that is innovative and representative of the ambitions that Deaf artists have now.

Our successful application to Arts Council England to be an Investment Principal Support Organisation (IPSO) identified a strategy that would make the cultural sector more inclusive and relevant for Deaf people who use sign language, and make Deaf Arts and Culture much more prominent, now that BSL is legally recognised in England, Scotland and Wales.

Our aim is to work in partnership with Deaf community leaders, Deaf organisations and voluntary groups, identify cultural organisations for collaboration and co-creation & widen and improve our support for Deaf artists. We are now looking for a Creative Director who can formulate a vision to deliver our strategy and take the organisation forward with a coherent programme of work.
